

Specimen Scenes in the Water and Around the Entrances.

On Thursday, August 7, a paper, prepared by ex-Treasurer of the United States J. C. New and others will be read on "The Relations of the Banks to the Treasury." Colonel Vermilye will follow on "The Agency of the Banks in Resumption and the Negotiation of Loans and the Refunding of the Public Debt." The day will close with an essay on "Our Banks and Banking System," by John Jay Knox, Comptroller of the Currency.

On the last day the subjects to be discussed will be "Bank Taxation and Its Evils, and the Way to Secure

THE NEW BARGE OFFICE.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETE FOR COMMENCING

who runs an opposition line of stages over the Concourse, remarked, "Here comes that fellow who called me a thief and a liar yesterday." The officer replied, "Yes, I did say so, and I can prove it: it is a matter of criminal record." It is alleged that Hamilton then began a brutal assault on the officer, which he continued while Bray was held by one of his drivers. The officer was badly bruised, and a gash over one of his eyes had to be sewed up. Hamilton was arrested and released on bail by Justice Voorhies to await examination.

for the child's sake from Blackwell's Island, to which she had been committed as a vagrant on complaint of an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Mr. William F. Eitzinger laine rock at the side of the gorge down which the horse and wagon had descended. With much difficulty the party extricated the unconscious man and, overcoming danger at every step, finally arrived in safety at their resting place. Mr. Coe, Jr., the doctor, and other friends who had been notified, received them. The sufferer, in a dazed condition, responded in monosyllables to their inquiries. A hurried examination disclosed the fact that his right arm and right leg had been badly fractured, and that he had sustained internal injuries of a serious nature. He was quickly removed to Mr. Coe's house, where

There is a part of the Bowery devoted after night-fall to beer and music. Wayfarers are astonished as they pass by subterranean shrieks of a C sharp clari-

Five steamships left this port yesterday with live cattle and fresh meat for the European markets. The France, for London, carried out 400 head of cattle and 2 horses; the Helvetia, for Liverpool, had included in her cargo 143 head of cattle and 30 tons of fresh meat; the Anchoria, for Glasgow, was loaded with 48 bullocks, 900 quarters of beef and 200 carcasses of sheep; the City of Berlin, for Liverpool, had on board 250 tons of fresh meat, and the Australia, for London, sailed with 200 head of cattle, 281 quarters of beef and 332 epistle indicates qualities in the employees of the company the cultivation of which is not to be encouraged it is printed as it was received:—

CAMPBELL.—On Thursday, July 31, after a lingering illness, HENRY CAMPBELL, in the 81st year of his age.

Relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from his late residence, 161 East 25th st., Sunday, at half past one P. M.

CHAFIN.—In this city, on Saturday, August 2, 1879, REUBEN S. CHAFIN, M. D., aged 61 years.

CORNET.—On Friday, August 1, ALEXANDER CORNET, in the 85th year of his age, Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, 753 Washington st.

WELCH.—At Staten Island, Saturday morning, August 2, JEREMIAH WELCH, in the 77th year of his age.

Relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from the residence of his brother-in-law, Henry Zoble, 212 Java st., Greenpoint, Brooklyn, L. E., Monday, two o'clock P. M.

WHEELER.—In Brooklyn, Friday, August 1, MARY CONKLIN, wife of Russell L. Wheeler.

Funeral services at Grace Church, Brooklyn.